

Bright Feats Resource and Family Support Fair

Welcome Families! We are looking forward to helping you find the resources and support you need for your children with medical, educational or special needs.

Bright Feats Resource Fair will include two speakers on the topics of Advocacy and "Building Social Bridges". Breakout support groups for advocacy, homeschooling, and special needs.

A free box lunch will be provided for those who register before February 21, 2009.

Event Speakers & Support Groups

Speaker – Pam Lindemann

Mother of two special needs children and advocate, Pam will educate you on how to advocate for your child in the public school system and more.

Speaker-Milaura Spelman MS, CCC-SLP & Carol Miller LCSW

Come hear Carol Miller and Milaura Spelman speak on "Building Social Bridges - helping your child to successfully connect with their peers." They will discuss how to recognize the struggles some children face in social situations and provide strategies for teaching social and emotional skills. Social Bridges is a licensed, interactive social skills curriculum for elementary, middle and high school age children. Visit their website at: www.socialbridges.com.

Advocacy Support Group with Pam Lindemann

Pam Lindemann will provide tips and advice on how to get services for your child in the public school system. Visit her website at TheIEPAdvocate.com to learn more about her.

Special Needs Support Group with Michelle Young

Michelle Young from Whole-Sum Therapies will provide support for parents along with an opportunity to share feelings, ideas and tools to use at home with their children of all ranging abilities.

Homeschooling Resources with Penny Martin

Please join Penny Martin, a mom with 19 years experience homeschooling her children, including a struggling learner and a daughter with special needs, along with other homeschooling parents in this support group meeting. You will have the opportunity to ask questions and share ideas. If you have ever considered homeschooling, this is the workshop for you.
